Story of the Battle of Gettysburg

Every American should own this splendid book. It contains a large outline chart of the 25 square miles of battlefield, showing the location of every regiment and the movements of the two armies. Every detail of the battle is described by a military man of distinction, and it has about 50 letters and reports written in the saddle on the battlefield by the Union and Confederate officers, picturing the scenes in all their vividness. It contains the portraits of the leading Generals of both armies with fac simile autograph letters of many Generals. It is illustrated with 25 principal battles of the Civil War. It has a fine portrait of President Lincoln and a handsome copy of his famous address at Cettysburg. The book is worth one dollar, but while they last you In have one mailed to you for twenty-five cents in stamps.
